

Personal Insurance and Risk Management Solutions

For Individuals and Families

You face risk in every area of your life. In financial terms, the risks faced by you and your family can be as great as those faced by a large company.

However complex your insurance situation, Marsh Ireland's Private Client Practice is uniquely positioned to deliver security and peace of mind. Our clients enjoy many advantages:

- Expert analysis and advice from insurance professionals
- Consolidation of policies under a centralised portfolio
- Access to related specialist services
- Total confidentiality and security
- Liberation from administrative burden
- Dedicated Account Executive.

About Us

Marsh Ireland's Private Client Practice specialises in personal insurance and risk management services that focus primarily on clients with substantial personal and family assets.

Wealthy individuals and families often have special insurance needs that cannot be met by off-the-shelf policies. Our core services include home, contents, motor vehicles, yachts, travel and fine art & jewellery cover. Our associations with specialist insurers enable us to offer policies tailored to each individual client's requirements, without the restrictions and high premiums associated with mass-market policies.

Our goal is to provide each client with an individually tailored solution for their personal material assets that eliminates any gaps or overlaps in cover, with the flexibility to adapt to the most complex insurance situations.

We are also able to locate industry professionals in related fields such as valuations, restoration and security as an additional service for our clients if they request our assistance in this area.

Global Expertise

For clients with multi-property and overseas needs, our position as part of a global Private Client Practice also enables us to provide facilities overseas. In addition, we can also advise on the following specialty lines:

- Identity Fraud;
- Kidnap & Ransom;
- Equine;
- Aviation;
- Financial Planning.
